

Color

Color should be used to maximize a charts legibility at a glance. When introducing colors into charts, emphasize contrast.

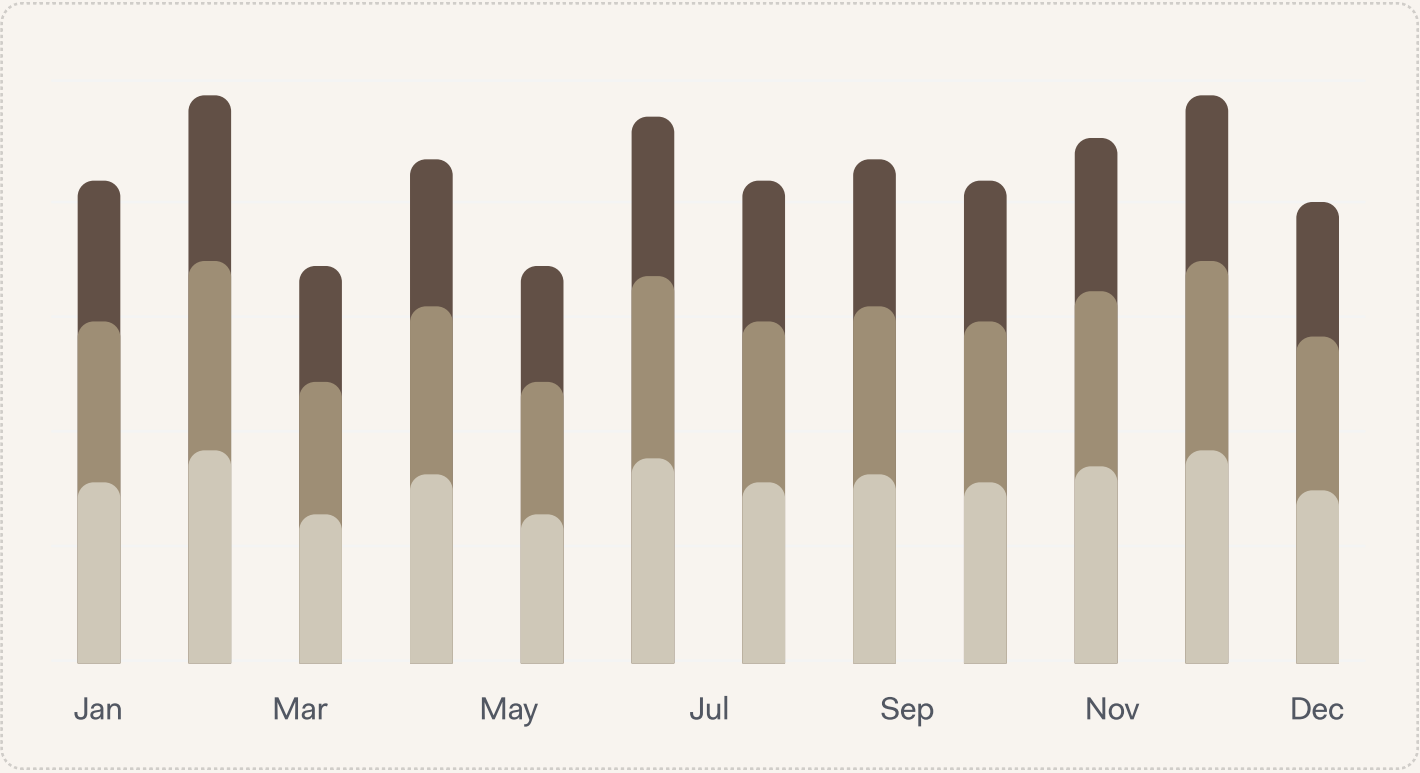

In the first example, we use a single dark shade from the primary palette — Clay 700.

In the second example, we are using Clay 700 as the base color and then using lighter shades of clay to complete the data set. Using shades from the same base color create a feeling of a wave.

BAR CHART / STANDARD AND STACKED

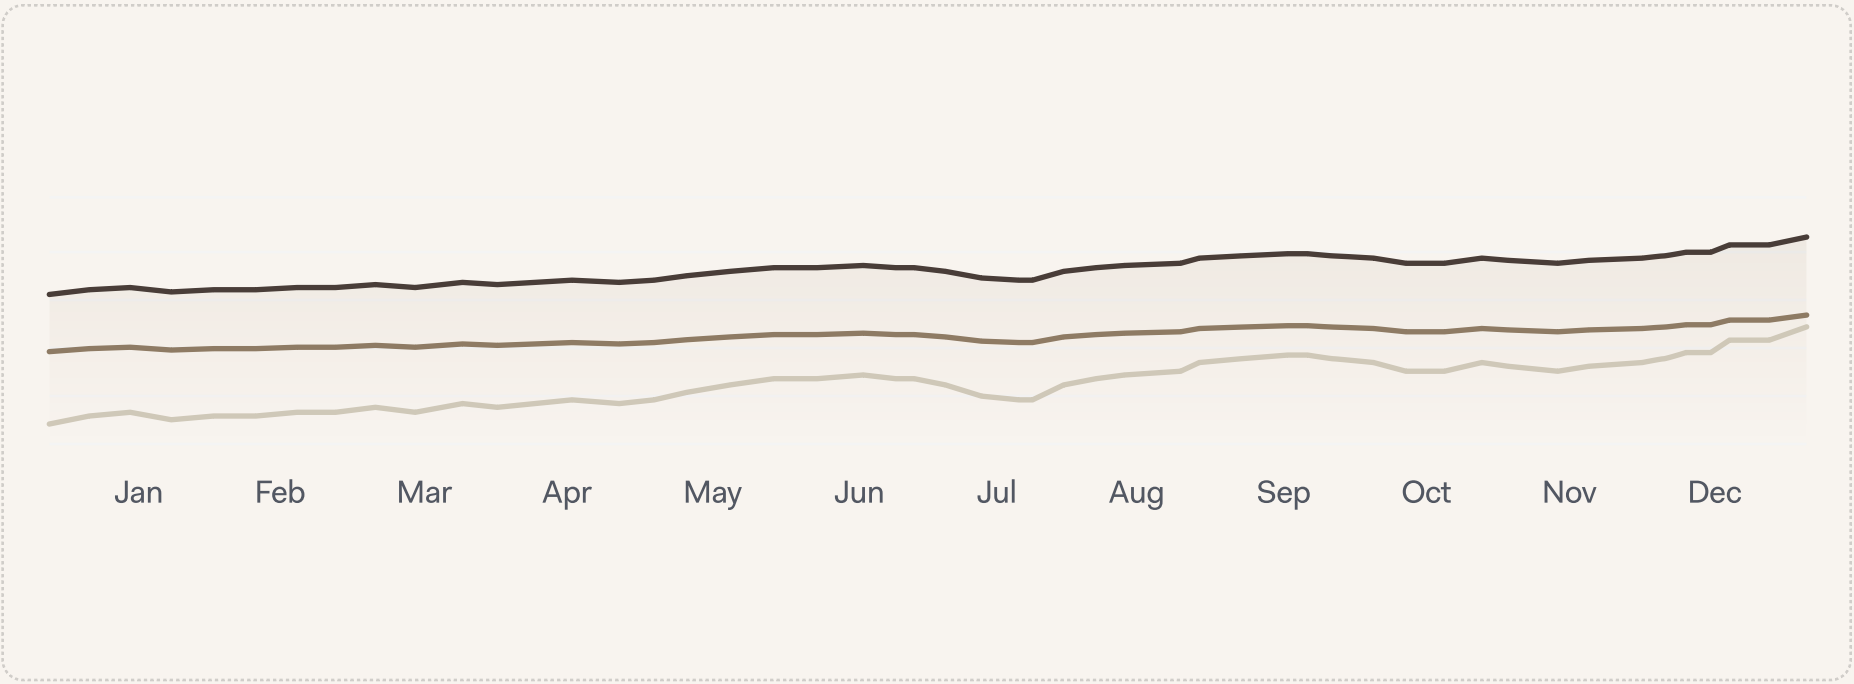

STANDARD

STACKED

LINE / AREA CHARTS

RADIAL PROGRESS

