

Diagram Construction

Our diagram system is built from a simple visual vocabulary of lines, circles, icons, and shapes. This section breaks down how these elements combine to create structures that are clear, balanced, and consistent. This page breaks down the thinking of how some of these diagrams are constructed.

